

Book 1 Unit 1 (Chapter 1-2) Happy Preview (1)

Grade: A 11/9
Date: 10/9/2025

Module and Topic: Book 1 Unit 1 Ch.1 Get Well Soon

A. Learning Objectives:

1. Learn to read medicine labels and to take the medicine accordingly
2. Distinguish the differences between seeing a doctor and a Chinese practitioner.

B. Preview method:

and

Activity 1: Interview one of your family members. Record his or her answers below.

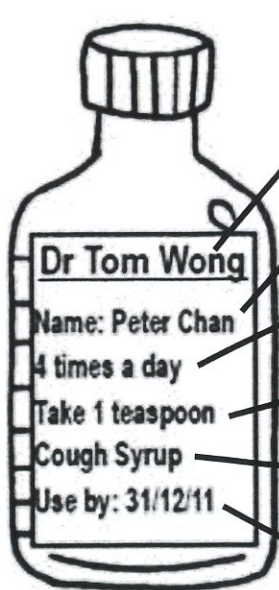

1. Who did you interview?
2. When was the last time he/she feel sick?
3. What were his/her symptoms?
4. How did he/she do when he/she was sick?
5. How long did he/she take to get well?

Mum ✓
last week ✓
headache and fever ✓
see doctor, take medicine ✓
two days ✓

Try to explore the ways to show our care to the patients on TB P.9!

★ Activity 2

Match the information on the medicine label with its meaning.

F

E

A

C

D

B

A. Number of times the medicine should be taken per day

B. Expiry date

C. Amount of medicine to be taken each time

D. Name of the medicine

E. Name of the patient

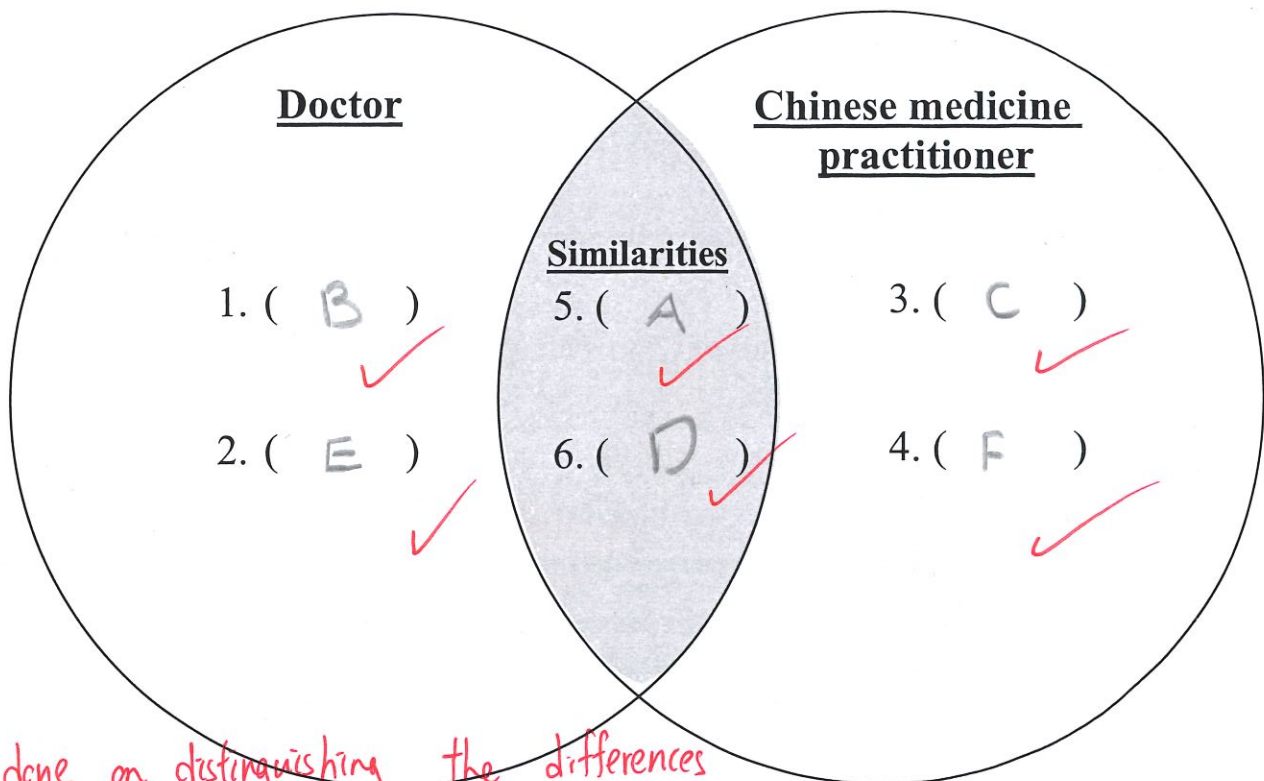

F. Name of the doctor

G. Things to pay attention to before or after taking the medicine

*C. Extension (Higher Order Thinking)*Activity 3

What are the differences between seeing a doctor and a Chinese medicine practitioner?
Compare them and complete the Venn diagram. Put the correct letters in the ().

- | |
|---|
| A. Check patients' physical conditions. |
| B. Check patients' heartbeat with a stethoscope. |
| C. Check patient's pulse by hand. |
| D. Ask patients how they feel. |
| E. Prescribe mainly syrup and pills to patients. |
| F. Prescribe mainly Chinese medicine powder or herbs to patients. |

Well done on distinguishing the differences between seeing a doctor and a Chinese medicine practitioner.

★ How can we get better quickly when we are ill?

(We should take more rest. ✓)